Re: Case Name and Docket Number- United States v. Nicolás Maduro Moros, et al. (Case No. S4 11 Cr. 205 (AKH))

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

Pursuant to Court Rule, e.g., Fed. R. App. P. 29, we Humphrey J. Pachecker Barrera; Humphrey H. Pachecker Cardenas, together with Organizations NAFA LAW, UNPAM and AICACHR respectfully moves this Court for leave to file the attached amicus curiae brief in support of Plaintiff.

Interest of Amicus Curiae:

We, above described as well described in the amicus curiae brief as acting in Pro se. The outcome of this case will significantly impact millions of citizens as well will impact several hundred members of NAFA LAW all Venezuela's citizens .

Reasons for Leave to File:

This brief will assist the Court by addressing several legal issues including factual issues all better described in the amicus curiae brief.

Unlike the primary parties, the Amicus offers a unique perspective on, historical context, scientific data including details of several torts as violations of all basic universal human rights that are all relevant to the disposition of this case.

Amicus has put on notice counsel for Party A, The United States of America] requesting consent to this filing; Party B, Defendants legal representatives have not yet responded.

Respectfully submitted,

Signature of Humphrey J. Pachecker Barrera and Humphrey H. Pachecker Cardenas
